

GT Aloha Vidhya Mandir students shine in competitions

A record number of 98 students of GT Aloha Vidhya Mandir, whose total strength is about 250 students at present, took part in the Bhagwad Gita Chanting competition conducted on November 2 by Chinmaya Mission.

As many as 39 students were recognised for their efforts, of whom, nine students won the first prize, six students the second prize and two students the third, while 22 others got a special prize.

The dedication with which the students were trained and the devotion with which they learnt was appreciated by the adjudicators.

The nine first prize winners will go on to participate in the finals on December 5.

GT Aloha Vidhya Mandir made a name for itself when its students excelled in the 13th All India Shorei - Kan Karate - Do Championship 2010 that took place on November 13 at J.J. Indoor Basket Ball Stadium, Kilpauk. SriRaghavi of class VI bagged the gold and Sasmitha of class V, the bronze.

Tanya Sahay of class VI of GT Aloha Vidhya Mandir won the second place at the i-genius competition conducted by Max New York Life Insurance on November 15 at New Delhi. She won a scholarship amount of Rs.1 lakh.
